

Academic Exorcise

(A Discworld Roleplaying Game Scenario.)

It has come to the attention of the governments of various cities that other cities besides Ankh-Morpork have recently acquired colleges of magic, and this is being tolerated. Therefore, it has become desirable. Therefore, the Sto Kerrig College of Agriculture has just been re-established as the Sto Kerrig College of Thaumaturgical Arts. Of course, it needs a properly qualified faculty. That's where you come in. It also needs better facilities than a cabbage farm. That's where this scenario comes in.
