DESCRIPTION
You don't exactly come from the happiest family in town; your dad is a bit of a drinker, your mum, well, doesn't argue with him, and your kid brother Iggy - Ian - is, well, a bit weird. But he's your brother, so you look out for him; he doesn't deserve the yelling he gets from your dad. And he's a good-hearted kid - too good-hearted - who tries to persuade you to be a better person than your dad. Sometimes, that gets through to you. You didn't do well at school, but Iggy persuaded you to put the effort in to get a job at a local garage, so you're training to fix cars. You spend a bit too much of your wages down the pub, or at least you used to - your temper gets the better of you a bit too often, and now you're banned from most of the pubs in town. Iggy maybe needs to persuade you to watch that, too.
