

Boulder

Organisation: Herr Doktor Prung's Household.

Background: A relatively young troll, who came down from the mountains and landed this job because why not?

Niche: Heavy Lifting and Door Guarding.

Quirks

Here is as good as anywhere.

Lets it all wash over him, because he's confident that he can handle any problems that come up.

Blunt words and blunt instruments usually do the job.

Stalagmite

Organisation: Herr Doktor Prung's Household.

Background: A relatively young troll, who came down from the mountains in search of a good time.

Niche: Any Interesting Odd Jobs Going?

Quirks

Thought this job sounded like a good idea at the time.

Determined to PARTY!!! So where's the molten sulphur??

If he paid more attention, he'd notice that great parties lead to horrible hangovers. But he doesn't.

Keystone

Organisation: Herr Doktor Prung's Household.

Background: A gargoyle who want to town, learned the art of photography, and now wants to apply it to the scenery of this, his homeland.

Niche: Keeping a Lookout (from over the front door).

Quirks

Watches the world intently.

A mountain gargoyle who's travelled a bit.

Truth is beauty, and beauty is truth, and this camera records the truth, so every photograph is beautiful.

Mr. Grushk

Organisation: Herr Doktor Prung's Household.

Background: An unusually bright gnoll. (But that's bright by gnoll standards.)

Niche: Gardener and Herbalist.

Quirks

Really, really knows the outdoors.

A bit of magical sensitivity.

Painfully gullible.

Mister Pestiferous

Organisation: Herr Doktor Prung's Household.

Background: A pet cat who drank from the wrong saucer, and ended up with the gift of abstract thought and speech. Still definitely a cat, though.

Niche: Domestic Pet and Chess Partner.

Quirks

Paid a bit of attention to what Herr Doktor said and did.

Sees what's there, not what people want him to think is there.

Incredibly lucky.
